

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MINNESOTA

United States of America,

Case No. 23-cr-94 (JNE/TNL)

Plaintiff,

v.

ORDER

Danny Francisco Copeland,

Defendant.

This matter comes before the Court on Defendant Danny Francisco Copeland's Motion for Extension of Time to File Motions and to Exclude Time Under the Speedy Trial Act, ECF No. 36. Defendant also filed a Statement of Facts in Support of Exclusion of Time Under the Speedy Trial Act, ECF No. 37.

Defendant requests an extension of time to file pretrial motions and a continuance of the January 25, 2024 motions hearing and related deadlines. Defendant states that a review of discovery has revealed that some "records were inadvertently not disclosed" by the Government. ECF No. 36 at 1. These records were subsequently disclosed on December 29, 2023, but defense counsel will not have sufficient time to review them before the current motions-filing deadline of January 4. Additionally, "voluminous electronic evidence" is in the process of being transferred to a hard drive provided by Defendant. ECF No. 36 at 1. It is expected that the hard drive with this evidence will be produced to Defendant during the first week of January.

Defendant requests that the motions-filing deadline be continued to February 5; the deadline for responses to motions and notices of intent to call witnesses be continued to February 12; the deadline for responsive notices of intent to call witnesses be continued to February 16, and the motions hearing taken place on February 26. Defendant “has spoken with the Government and they have no objection to the extension of times and moving of the dates.” ECF No. 36 at 3.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h), the Court finds that the ends of justice served by granting a continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and Defendant in a speedy trial and such continuance is necessary to provide Defendant and his counsel reasonable time necessary for effective preparation and to make efficient use of the parties’ resources.
